"A veces, no sabes por qué, la inspiración aparece en el lugar más imprevisto y cuando menos te lo esperas... quieres ver con claridad pero tu mente se convierte en un torbellino de imágenes que no dejan de dar vueltas...quieres pararlo, pero no encuentras el botón.... y de repente surge una idea... nueva?!... buena?!...Lo planteas, lo maduras, sigues adelante con ello...y al final te das cuenta de que éste era justamente botón que estabas buscando... Se hizo la luz?! Aprovecha pues las sensaciones que unas líneas de prosa de la calle te pueden suscitar, cuando todos hablan de poesía."

"Sometimes, you don't know why, inspiration appears in the most unlikely place, just when you least expect it... you want to stop your head from turning, but can't find the button to push.... an idea suddenly pops up that is new?!...good?!...You think about it, weigh up the pros and cons, put it into practice, and then realise that this was exactly the button you were looking for. So, have you finally seen the light?!...well, take advantage of these feelings that a few lines of street prose can arouse in you when everyone is talking about poetry."
